

CZECH NATIONAL DAY – 28TH OCTOBER

BACKGROUND FOR TEACHERS

28.10. The Czech Republic celebrates the birthday of an independent Czechoslovak state and is a state holiday.

Before 28 October 1918, our country was part of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, which was a monarchy. People did not like to live under the rule of Austrian emperors, demanding greater autonomy and national identity. The loss of Germany and Austria - Hungary in the First World War Austria-Hungary ceased.

In 1918 was created Czechoslovak. Then in 1993 were created two countries: Czech Republic and Slovakia Republic.
